BAVINGS BANK DEPOSITORS ARE REASSURED

AND MANY PUT THEIR MONEY BACK. Chicago, June 7 (Special).-By 2 o'c'ork this afteron almost every vestige of the panic among savbank depositors had disappeared. The crowds the Union Trust, Illinois Trust and Savings about the Union Trust, illinois and extent, and exaporated to a great extent, and there was nowhere any evidence of special excite-ment. Many of the frightened people who had checked out their deposits under the spur of fear were putting their money back again to-day. Stockholders and directors of some of the leading banks were preparing to come to the support of the banks If there had been need of it. In the case of the Thinos. Trust three stockholders, worth together $100,000,000,000, stood ready to guarantee the payment every dollar of the $20,000,000 deposits in that

No traces of the missing banker, Herman Schaffner, have been found. The lake is being dragged, but thus far to no purpose. No financial exhibit of the firm's condition has yet been prepared.

MORE WESTERN BANKS SUSPEND. New-Albany, Ind., June 7 .- The New-Albany Panking Company suspended payment this morning and closed its doors. The suspension was caused by the run made on the Bedford Bank, at Bedford, Ind., yesterday, which forced it to close. The principal stock-holders in the two banks are T. S. Windsley, of this city; W. S. Windsley, of Bedford, and W. L. Breyfogle, Chicago, formerly of this city. Yesterday W. L. Breyfogie executed a deed of trust of $200,000 worth upencumbered real estate in Chicago for the benefit of the depositors of the two banks here. It is cisimed

They go from here to Chicago, where a meeting of the supreme officers has been called for Saturday to take action in Willey's case. They have just come from Wilmington, where they were engaged in an unsuccessful effort to recover the money.

VALUABLE HORSES BURNED ALIVE.

THEY PELONGED TO H. VICTOR NEWCOMB-THE COACHMAN'S WIFE INJURED BY SPRINGING FROM THE WINDOW OF THE BLAZ-ING STABLE.

Three valuable horses belonging to H. Victor New comb, the well-known Wall street broker, were burned alive yesterday afternoon in a fire which started my steriously in his private stable at No. 108 West Fifty-fourth-st. The building, a two-story brick structure, was almost destroyed by the flames.

On the second floor of the building lived John Lumsden, Mr. Newcomb's coachman, and his young wife, Agnes. Lumsden drove out of the stable with a pair of horses about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon leaving his wife alone. Fifteen minutes later the woman heard people pounding on the stable and shouting fire. She ran to the door leading to the stairway, but was driven back by a blinding cloud of sincke. She then tried to escape by the front windows. She knew the place was on fire and became so excited that she was completely beside herself. Instead of climbing out and dropping to the ground, the woman leaped out and struck the pavethe assets are $212,000; its liabilities $100,0.00; and that the depositors will be paid 100 cents on the dollar. A deed of assignment was to-day made to work the dollar. A deed of assignment was to-day made to work the dollar. A deed of assignment was to-day made to physician. The street. Two additional calls for assixtance were Boatrice, Neb., June 7.—The State Banz, at Cort-land, this county, closed yesterday morning. It is blooded horses, one valued at $5,000, and the others at $1,000 each. They were burned to death before they could be led out. A brougham, degeart, tea-cart, family carriage and "ranabout," all worth $4,000, were destroyed. The firemen succeeded in confining the flames to the Newcomb stable, which was damaged to the extent of $5,000. The total loss was about $15,000.

THE MASKED BURGLAR CAUGHT.

ARREST OF THE MAN WHO GAGGED AND ROBBED MRS. LULU HUTCHINS AT WEST FARMS ON MAY 24,

Captain Thompson and the police of the Tremot station have succeeded in capturing the thief who, on May 24, entered the home of Mrs. Lulu Hutchins at West Farms, and having bound and gagged her. ransacked the house. Late on Tuesday afternoon Lulu Murray, the young daughter of Charles Murray. a bookkeeper employed at the Gntes Lumber Yard at West Farms, while returning to her home, was accosted by a short, hunch-backed German, who gave her five cents and asked her to walk away with him. The father and Policeman Daniel O'Keele succeeded in arresting him and took him to the Tremont police station. To the sergeant there he described himself as Matthew Strutt, thirty-three years old, a German laborer. Captain Thompson thought that Strutt answered the description of the man who had assaulted Mrs. Hutchins and sent a message to her home. Mrs. Hutchins positively identified the man as the thief who had beaten and robbed her. He was taken to the Morrisania Police Court, where he was held in $1,000 ball for examination. Mrs. Hutchins is the wife of George Hutchins, a brakeman employed on the New-York, New-Haven and Hartford Railroad. Early in the evening of May 24, while alone, she was startled by the appearance of a masked man who had entered the house through the window of an upper room. Without uttering a the man struck Mrs. Hutchins several blows on the face and head, knocked her down, and then seizing some diuslin, tied it over her nose and mouth and around her neck. Then going through the house he took $25 in money and some silverware. When Mr. Hutchins reached his home two hours later he found his wife still bound, gagged and unconscious.

PENNSYLVANIA PROHIBITIONISTS IN SESSION. Harrisburg, Penn., June 7 .- The Prohibition State Convention met in the Opera House here this morning, 325 delegates being present. Chairman Patton called the convention to order, and W. H. Blackburn, of Bellefonte, led in prayer. Les L. Grumbine, of Lebanon, was made temporary chairman, after which committees were appointed. The organization com-Fidhaiclphia, for permanent president, with a vice president for every county represented.

After naming the State Committee on a call of the roll of counties, the convention adjourned until 1:30 o'clock. When the convention resumed its session Chairman Putton spoke of the Baker Ballot law, which has not yet been signed by the Governor, saying there were several provisions in it which are very beneficial to the Probibition party. Speeches denouncing the liquor traffic and urging concerted effort for the cause were made by E. U. Mills, McKeesport, and Dr. cause were made by E. C. Mins, McKeesport, and Dr. Bryan, St. Louis. The Finance Committee recom-mended that the convention raise $3,000, and the chairman $1,000, which, with $1,000 already pledged, will make a campaign fund of $5,000. After half an hour's exhor alion the amount subscribed aggre-gated about $500.
